Megan,

Hi! I hope things are starting to slow down for you a bit (although I highly doubt it). Thank you so much for helping Dr. Tackett with the student led conference discussions and taking the time to share your knowledge with us, we really appreciate all that you've done for us this year.

At the Education Innovation Summit, I mentioned wanting to bring some of my staff up to Springdale to take a tour of your SOI. Now that we finally have some time to get away, I wanted to see if you had any available dates open where we could schedule a visit? We are completely willing to work around your schedule as you are doing us a huge favor.

Again, thank you so much for everything that you and your staff has helped us with.

Thanks,

Subject: 2017-2018 Certified/Support Staff Allocations
Date: February 2, 2017

Enclosed are your division's certified/support staff allocations as approved by the Board for the 2016-2017 school year (including amendments to the allocations made since the Board's approval).

Please review these allocations, pencil in the changes you are recommending (they do not need to be typed) for the 2017-2018 school year, and return them to Susan Alford no later than Monday, February 20, 2016.

All recommended changes must be accompanied by a written justification and all proposed new positions must include a job description.

It is crucial that you return the allocations in a timely manner so they can be compiled for the Cabinet meeting on Monday, February 27, 2017.

mp and the two male individuals entered a rear bedroom of the residence, entered a microwave oven and left the residence with the property.

On Saturday, May 12th, 2018, Mr. Kemp returned and once again entered the residence while Ms. Rogers was in bed. At that time he took a 19" television.

The total value of both televisions and the microwave is approximately $800.

On the Saturday visit, Mr. Kemp made racial comments to her about her appearance and told her if she was not out by the 13th, he would return and take all her belongings.

Mr. Kemp was never offered the items to go toward payment for her rent, nor was he to go toward her rent.

Mr. Kemp contacted Corporal Traylor on May 12th at 1250 P.M. regarding Ms. Rogers. Corporal Traylor advised Mr. Kemp he could not get involved in the matter.

Ms. Rogers admitted she was behind on her rent but had been making payments toward her Kamps.

Mr. Kemp had never had Ms. Rogers legally served with a vacate notice.

During the course of this investigation an interview was conducted with a neighbor who stated Mr. Kemp told him that he was going to go remove her and that she would be gone by the end of the day.

Sergeant Jester asked Mr. Kemp if he had already removed property from the residence.

Mr. Kemp told Sergeant Jester they had not paid rent and that if they were evicted, he would be responsible for it.

Sergeant Jester then informed Mr. Kemp that by law he could not hold her responsible for the rent and that he didn't need to hear that adding "We did not talk about renters today."

This affidavit will serve for the charge of Criminal Trespass that occurred on May 12, 2018, with the same listed victim.

Subject: Re: Register for ASBA School Law Seminar

Felicia, I plan on attending but I prefer to pay the registration fee and not use district money. I encourage other board members to attend. I am particularly interested in the section on legal issues surrounding student and staff hearings.

Board Members, I will set up the school site visitations and see that media is notified. Please wait for me to accomplish that feat before you try to set things up as individual board members. Thanks for your help in getting things organized and on the proper path.

Subject: Register for ASBA School Law Seminar
To: fdickey@pcssd.org

Board Members and Superintendents:

Registration is open for the 2017 ASBA School Law Seminar that will be held January 17 at the Embassy Suites Hotel in West Little Rock. Our annual Law Seminar is an opportunity for school board members, superintendents, school attorneys, and others to hear the latest information on timely and relevant topics related to school law.

Topics include:

- How to respond when undocumented students and/or undocumented parents show up at your schools
- Students and free speech - what can and should we do if they take a knee, or react to flags, the pledge, or other patriotic symbolism in an untraditional manner
- The new, higher income requirement for exempt classified employees impact your district – implications for boards and administrators in determining your overtime breakeven point if you are considering bumping to the higher salary
- How to insure that your employee and student hearings are conducted properly and legally

Registration is $175.00 per person through Tues., January 10, 2017, and $195.00 after January 10, 2017. The Seminar begins at 9 a.m. and will end at 3:30 p.m. Lunch is included. Online registration will close Friday, January 13, 2017 at noon. To register, click here.

CLE for attorneys will be applied for through the Arkansas Continuing Legal Education Board. School board members will earn six (6) hours of training credit.

A block of rooms at The Embassy Suites Hotel has been reserved for conference participants, January 16-17, 2017, at the rate of $125 per night. The special room rate will be available until December 18 or until the group block is sold-out, whichever comes first. To receive the discounted rate, visit the Embassy Suites ASBA reservation link or call 501-312-9000 and mention the ASBA School Law Seminar.

See you in 2017!
